BLUES COMING FOR TRY AGAIN

Dalhart Bunch will Play Leaguers Here Sunday and Monday

Evidently, the Dalhart Blues don't know when they're whipped. Or they don't propose to stay that way. They're coming south again Sunday for a try at a come-back with the Leaguers, and they're coming with blood in their eyes and grit in their muscles. Hence and wherefore, a vinegarish performance is threatened. Dad Cook's fire-eaters are determined to maintain their winning streak at all hazards, and it is deemed probable that the local line-up will be considerably strengthened for the coming set-to.

The Blues will play a two-game series here, one Sunday and the final one Monday. There's going to be big business.

Glove Gossip

Billy Allen, champion lightweight of Canada, and Joe Bayley will meet at Bassano, Alberta, June 29.

Both Jack Johnson and Jim Flynn are performing their training stunts before large crowds at Las Vegas.

Frank Manell, the Rhode Island middleweight, has been winning his fights and making a big hit with the California fans.

Dave Smith, the Austrian middleweight, who intends visiting this country soon, is trying to get a bout with Carpenter, the French champion.

EAST LAS VEGAS ASTIR WITH LIFE

Town Already Alive in Advance of Johnson-Flynn Battle

Special to Daily News.

East Las Vegas, N. M., June 19.—Las Vegas, heretofore an innocent, quiet spot, where one could almost hear the entire populace breathe, is now full of the merriment of the busiest swarm ever encountered anywhere.

Postmaster Blood has increased his office force 500 per cent. The Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, heretofore open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. are now running on a 24-hour schedule, and the one key and one operator has been increased to 20. This is only a small sample of how Las Vegas is reaping the harvest that comes with large crowds and untold advertising.

The grocery store is selling "Flynn Coffee" and "Johnson Breakfast Food." The hotel chef is arranging his menus according to Tommy Ryan and Professor Barna-training ideas. The banks are handling drafts from all parts of the world, which are coming in for ticket purchases, and every rendezvous, where patches of men and women congregate, the subject of discussion is Flynn and Johnson. Five o'clock teas, as well as lunch rooms, are in chaos over the outcome. One cannot imagine the difference of the before and after, which has been taken hold of this quaint little New Mexican city.

An early morning fire recently destroyed $200,000 worth of property in "Old Time." Ordinarily this would have been food for discussion for many moons, but not so this time. Flynn and Johnson were discussed at the breakfast table even before the fire departments had time to retire to headquarters.

The arena is now under construction. Jim Flynn and Jack Johnson are in hard training; the town is ready to receive the crowd, the ticket sale is brisk and well taken care of, the advertising is all out, and in a few days the last detail of the match, that of selecting the referee, will be decided upon and publicly announced, after which remains but the opening of the gates, the match and the result.

As local promoter Charles O'Brien said, "all the work is over excepting bookie work and the match will surely prove the biggest thing in a success."

The Traverse City team in the Michigan State League has quite a fancy flipper in Pitcher Kirby.

Pitcher Wells, of the Green Bay Wisconsin-Illinois League team, has seven straight victories to his credit this season.

Phil Chouteau, who played utility roles with the Chicago White Sox last season, has joined the Des Moines, Mich., team.

Cecil Ferguson, the former Boston pitcher, is helping Memphis keep in the running in the Southern League race.

True to their name the Ambition champions are making the Southeastern League teams come to heel and take a beating.

Furlington won twenty-three of the first thirty games played, and is perched on the high seat in the Central Association.

Hastings and Kearney are showing the way in the Nebraska State League with the champion Superior team in the cellar.

The Battle Creek team in the Southern Michigan League, has won fifteen straight games this season, a record in that organization.

The Eau Claire and Winona teams have the other teams in the Minnesota-Wisconsin League flustered, and are winning everything in sight.

With three Indians, Haas, Smith and Murie, in the lineup, Manhattan in the Central Kansas League comes pretty near being a real American team.

Frank O'Rourke, the Bridgeport shortstop, who was recently sold to the Boston Nationals, was considered the class among the shortstops in the Connecticut League.

"Buck" Freeman, the former Washington-Boston heavy hitter, is having a hard time of it trying to land his Scranton team a winner in the New York State League.

Both the Boston Nationals and the New York Americans are angling for the services of Johnny Corriden, the sorrel-topped shortstop of the Kansas City American Association team.

Dalhart and Superior fans have not been attending the games very strong this season, although their teams have been running one-two in the Central International League so far.

Seems like everybody in town has been after my Sox the last two days. Of course I'm not blaming them for most intelligent men can see big values in Iron-wear 25c lisle hose at 20c. No need of being sockless when there's values like those to be had.
